ACTIVITIES

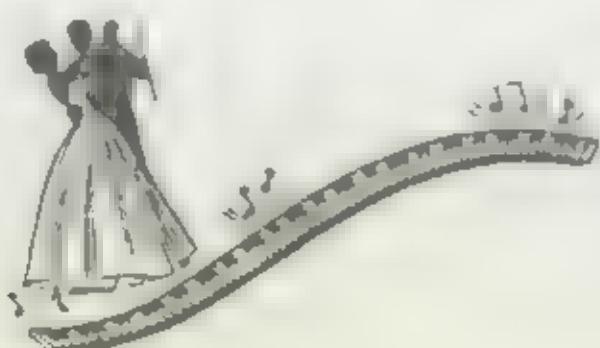

JUNIOR PROM

The strain of the tides could be heard on May 1 at the Junior Prom. The room was furnished by the Edward Kenney Corporation to blend with the island atmosphere on the side walls and a huge canvas painting of a moon-lit Hawaiian beach on the back wall.

The Grand March was led by King Kapi'ahn and Queen Janet Ayers. The crew leaders were Cindy Esteez and Bobby Ayers. Members of the court pictured above were: Natalee Olson, John Hause, Karen Johnson, Miltord Abbe, Gary Brabender, Karen Moore, Ruth Fobrest, Mike Webber, Sandra Johnson, and Paul Skalet.

Many compliments were paid to the Junior Class on their dance and especially on the beautiful false ceiling.

HOMECOMING

The first activity was the Parade. The students were dressed in their best clothes. They marched down the street with flags and banners. The parade ended with a picnic at the park. The students enjoyed the food and each other's company.

Sandra Johnson. The grand finale of the Homecoming festivities was the Dance.

homecoming, it opened with Stunt Nite. They highlighted the evening. They were followed by the Freshmen, who had to be barefoot, and were followed with the Snake Dance which was led by the cheerleaders.

ATHLETICS

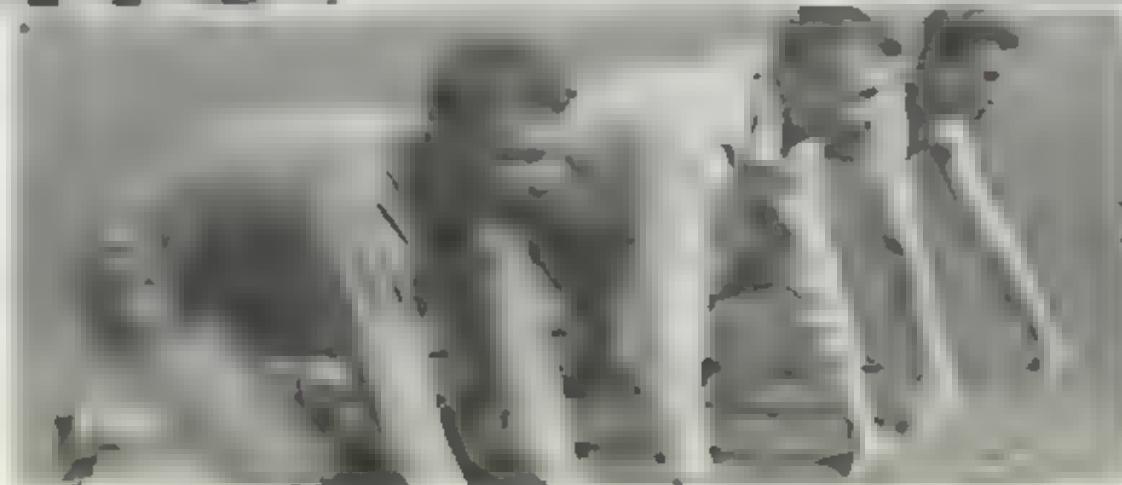

Around March and April of '56, baseball was in the air. Yes, we play that too. In fact I have seen the first game of the year, and we were sort of growing up as a club. Below the picture, the track team. It's kind of weird to put this out of Bodie and Madison. This is the first in a long time if ever, that Black Earth has had a Track team.
